

KRISTIN DAY 1

Landed 1 pm in sunny beautiful San Diego. Our driver from the clinic, Uriel, greeted us at the baggage claim, holding up a sign with Kristins name.

This is Swen and Isabel from a congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses in Tijuana. They came and waited for us at the clinic and gave each of us a bouquet. They will be "there" for us during our stay, taking us anywhere we need to go. Couldn't feel more comforted and secure.

Here is the courtyard we look down on from our room. It's a nice place to soak up some rays. We were, not surprisingly, tired after our day of travel and took dinner in our room.
